LEADER BOX STYLE 201

All Leader Boxes are made in house and can be customized to fit your specific project. They can be made functional, as conductor heads, or as a decorative accessory.

Also known as scupper boxes, when made functional they collect water into a downspout. Although elegant and decorative on their own, further detail can be achieved by adding lettering, numbering, or medallions. They are also available in a variety of finishes to perfectly match your project.
